Welcomed To Chicago by Irish
And German Organizations.

CHICAGO, May 12. (UP)—The final and busiest day of their Chicago visit lay ahead of the Bremen crew today.

Already feted and acclaimed by thousands since their arrival here on Thursday afternoon, Baron Gunther von Huenefeld, Maj. James Fitzmaurice and Capt. Hermann Koehl rested until noon today before entering the last round of major functions arranged by the city in their honor.

A reception for the trans-Atlantic

LITTLE STATE TRACK MEET HELD TODAY

ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD
MEET HELD THIS AFTERNOON
ON BLACKSTOCK FIELD.

MANY ATHLETES ENTERED

Fast Time Was Predicted In Many
Of The Events. DePauw
Expected To Win.

The Little State Track and Field
Meet with all of the smaller colleges in the state participating, was held on Blackstock Field Saturday afternoon.

The meet started at 1 o'clock with the preliminary heats for the dashes being run off first. Fast time was predicted in many of the various races as the field was in excellent condition for the annual intercollegiate races.

The 100 yard dash was expected to be one of the most spectacular ever held on the local field as three fast men were entered.

DePauw was expected to amass the greatest number of points and take the meet but, nevertheless, it was thought that the final scores would be much closer than in past years as a number of the colleges in the state boast strong track teams.

With the four first events out of the way, DePauw was leading with 19 points. Earlham was second with 6, Butler had 4, Indiana Central 2.
The events were the shot put, the mile run and the 440 yard dash.

In the special mile run between Sears of DePauw and Sivak of Butler, the latter won in the time of 4-20.7. Sears' time was 4:24.5.

ENROLLMENTS BEING TAKEN IN CORN CLUB

FIVE ACRE CORN CLUB PROJECT IS BEING SPONSORED IN PUTNAM COUNTY.

R. H. STEVENSON CO-OPERATING

Yields Are Estimated By Weighing
Up 300 Hills Selected From Three Places In Designated Plot.

The five acre corn club enrollments in Putnam County is cooperating with the Indiana Corn Growers' Association in promoting the project. Enrollment closes June 15th.

In 1927 there was no Corn Grower
to finish the contest in Putnam County out of a total of 727 to complete the work in the state. There are a number of Farmers in the county who have signified their intentions of enrolling in the contest for this coming year and more new ones are expected to enroll in the contest in the next few weeks.

This contest several years ago used to create quite an interest among the Corn Growers of the county and some remarkable yields of well over one hundred bushels per acre have been recorded. Putnam county can and is in a number of cases producing excellent yields of corn and both the grower and the county should get due credit.

A gold medal is awarded by the Indiana Corn Growers' Association to each Farmer who grows 100 bushels of corn per acre and enrolls the contest in Indiana's "Hundred Bushel Corn Club." Silver medals are awarded for yields of 85 to 100 bushels and bronze medals for yields of 75 to 85 bushels. Putnam County Corn show that is sponsored by the First National Bank and Citizens
Trust Company will give recognition to all Corn Growers who enter the contest and if enough entries are secured a special class for Five Acre Men will be arranged in the local show.

Rules governing the Five-acre club are simple, any Farmer who has five acres or more of corn in one field and who becomes a member of the Indiana Corn Growers' Association is eligible. The Association, through the County Agent, furnishes judges to inspect and check up yields at husking time. Yields are estimated by weighing up 300 hills selected from three places in the plot in checked corn or several rows in drilled corn and from the weights of these the yield per acre is calculated, after allowance is made for excess moisture.

For further information or to make enrollment see the County Agent.

many, besides those seriously injured

SLACK VETOES INDIANAPOLIS' DAYLIGHT BILL

BELIEVES CONFUSION WOULD RESULT FROM PASSAGE OF ORDINANCE.

COUNCIL IS NONCOMMITTAL

Impossible To Enforce Proposed Daylight Saving Measure Says Mayor Slack And Vetoes Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 12. (UP)—
The daylight saving ordinance passed by the city council at a special meeting two weeks ago was vetoed Friday by Mayor L. Ert Slack. The ordinance was previously refused consideration by the mayor at the regular session of the council last Monday night.

Five of the six city councilmen who voted for the ordinance refused to commit themselves yesterday as to whether they would urge passage over the veto. Edward B. Raub, president of the Council, the sixth member to favor the measure, is in Washington. He is expected home today.
Besides Mr. Raub, those voting for it were Meredith Nicholson, Earl Buchanan, Robert E. Springsteen, Edward W. Harris and Albert F. Mourer.

The ordinance was written to go into effect at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning. It would have made daylight saving effective in Indianapolis until 2 o'clock in the morning of the first Monday after the last Sunday in October. If brought up for repassage it will have to be amended to provide for a new date for taking effect.

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICES WILL BE HELD HERE

SPECIAL SERMONS WILL BE DE-LIVERED BY MINISTERS IN CITY CHURCHES.

APPROPRIATE MUSIC NUMBERS

The First Mother's Day Was Observed
In Philadelphia On May 12, 1908. Idea Now General.

Sunday, May 13, will be observed as "Mothers Day." Significant of the new general observance of the day, the War Department, on April 24, 1925 ordered a nation wide demonstration by the army, thus expressing its appreciation of the soldiers of America and giving public expressions of its love and remembrance and reverence for the mothers of our country.

The suggestion of "Mothers Day" is attributed to Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, to whom the idea came when asked by the superintendent of a Sunday School in a Virginia town to arrange a memorial service for the mothers who had lived and died in that town.

This experience was later brought to the attention of church people in Philadelphia by Miss Jarvis and the day was first observed in that city on the second Sunday in May, 1908.

From 1908, ministers, teachers and newspapers have made much of the idea and Congress, by a point resolution, designated the second Sunday in May of each year to be observed as "Mothers Day." The bill was signed by President Wilson on May 8, 1914.

All of the Churches in Greencastle have special programs for Sunday which include appropriate music for the occasion. The following are the

Editorials

Under the new fish laws of Indiana enacted by the 1927 Legislature, it is unlawful to possess State spear of any kind for fishing. This includes frog spears as well as those of larger size used on big game fish. Under former laws, spears could be possessed for use in boundary waters. Present fish laws now make it unlawful for any person to take, catch, kill, purchase or possess any small-mouth or largemouth black bass, silver bass, rock bass commonly called red-eye, or googly eye, yellow perch, pike perch or wall-eye, crappie, blue-gill, redeared sunfish or any pickerel or pike from May 1 to June 16.

A two-year survey of the county has just been completed by the Federal health service and from the survey it is possible to receive a fairly definite idea of the causes of illness in any American city. The survey showed that the rate of sickness from bronchitis and colds was the highest being 418 for each 1,000 persons. Influenza and grippe were second with a rate of 143 per thousand. Digestive system diseases were third. Following the above three came tonsillitis and sore throat; diseases of the nervous system including headaches, accidents, measles, whooping cough, rheumatism, lumbago and heart disease in the order named.

STATE FARM GANGS WORK ON NATIONAL

ARE DOING SPLENDID WORK IN TERRACING SLOPES FOR THE HIGHWAY COMMISSION

The "Pie and cake" gangs from the State Penal Farm, under the direction of the State Highway Commission, are doing splendid work now in cuts improving the terraces where deep cuts have been made along the National road. The gangs are so-called because the inmates of the correctional institution do not come in for dinner but eat made-up lunches. These lunches contain pie and cakes that are not served regularly at the farm dining room. The highway working jobs, therefore, are regarded as the "cream" of the penal farm labor.

With plenty of labor available the State Highway Commission has been terracing the bare slopes in the hope that they will hold grass and prevent a wash of clay down onto the concrete. At several places the dirt taken off is being used to widen the shoulder of the road making ready for the time when the roadway will be made three feet wider on each side of the concrete.

Several gangs have also been working on State Road 43 between the National Road and Spencer, cutting down grades, straightening curves, changing the courses of streams and generally improving the roadway in that hilly country.—Brazil Times.

S-P-O-R-T-S Of The Day Here And There

OLD GOLD AND ENGINEERS TO CLASH MONDAY

Rose Poly Game Carded For Today Postponed Because Of Rain.

DePauw and Rose Poly will clash on the diamond Monday when Coach Todd Kirk takes his Tiger nine to Terre Haute for a return game. The contest was scheduled for this afternoon, but was changed to Monday on account of wet grounds.

Both teams will be out to establish their superiority after the first encounter between the two ended in a 3-3 deadlock. Both outfits have been putting in time in practice for this tilt, so it should be a hard-fought affair.

Houck will be Kirk's mound selection to oppose the Rosemen Monday, with R. Fowle in reserve. Behind the bat, Schultz or Scheiner will perform. The right field position, vacated by Messersmith, is a tossup between Costello and Holycross, and it has not yet been definitely decided which will start.

TIGER DIAMOND SQUAD TO PLAY SIX MORE TILTS

Strong Opponents Face Batmen As 1928 Season Draws To A Close.

Baseball Schedule

May 15. Indiana Central at Greencastle.
May 17. Wabash at Greencastle.
May 22. State Normal at Terre Haute.
May 24. Wabash at Crawfordsville.
May 25. Muncie Normal at Muncie.
May 29. Butler at Greencastle.

Six of the strongest teams in Indiana secondary collegiate circles will oppose the Tiger diamondmen before the curtain falls on the 1928 baseball season.

With the exception of the two Wabash games, all of the other tilts will be return clashes. The Old Gold squad managed to score an easy victory over the Indiana Central squad several weeks ago, and dope favors a victory on the local diamond.

State Normal, Muncie Normal and Butler will provide interesting competition as each of the teams has scored a victory over DePauw this season.

Wabash with one of the strongest teams in recent years, will tangle with the Tigers in the feature tilts of the month. The Scarlet will be out to avenge the two defeats handed it by the Old Gold net team in the last season, while the Tigers will be on edge to cut another notch in the ancient Wabash-DePauw feud.

DePauw Courtmen Win Seven Matches From Little Giants

Sweeping every match without the loss of a single set, the DePauw tennis team dropped the Wabash courtmen by a 7-0 count on the local courts Wednesday. The Old Gold racket wielders were in good form and had little trouble disposing of their old rivals in the five singles and two doubles encounters.

The scores: Kahl defeated Grating, 7-5, 6-3; Brandenburg defeated Beasley, 6-3, 6-3; Shoemaker defeated Brown, 6-1, 6-3; Hughes defeated Harris, 6-4, 6-2; Mahrdt defeated Sills, 6-4, 7-5; Hughes and Shoemaker defeated Brown and Beasley, 6-2, 6-2; McCormack and Brandenburg defeated Harris and Sills, 6-1, 6-1.

The Tiger netters have two stiq matches carded for next week. On Monday the DePauw team will go to Indianapolis to meet the strong Butler squad, and on Tuesday Terre Haute Normal will visit the local courts. Butler, with two outstanding men in Wilson and Christopher, should prove some of the strongest competition met this year.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Margaret Mae Pitts who died 2 years ago today.

Sad and sudden was the call

Of her so dearly loved by all.

Her memory is as dear today

As in the hour she passed away.

We have missed her coming footsteps

Home has lost its greatest sunbeam.

It is sweet to breathe her name,

In life we loved her dearly,

In death we do the same.

The moon and stars are shining on a lone and silent grave.

Beneath lies her we loved

But whom we could not save.

There are those who still will linger

By the spot where she is laid;

Who will come and scatter flowers

on the grave that Christ has made.

—Sadly missed by mother, brother and sister.

After his discharge from the police force because a note had lured him from his beat while bandits raided

the Dayton silk warehouses, Danny

Malone takes a job with a trucking firm working in league with the bandits. Jimmy Wells, a newspaper reporter, and Mary Gillen,

Danny's sweetheart, learn that

Alfred Dayton, Jr., is implicated in the robberies and that Bull Savage is the leader of the gang. Danny's younger brother, Dicky, long missing, is Bull's lookout man and is suspected of treachery. Danny learns that he is to be sent on a mysterious job that night and suspects that it is to be a delivery of stolen silk.

12-1p.

Jimmy was so elated with the news that he had forgotten to tell him of the information that Mary had gained. By doing so he left

Danny thinking that Mary had lost faith in him and was playing around with Dayton. Even in the days when he had been at his heyday he had been vaguely jealous of the attentions of her boss. At that time he hadn't troubled himself very much. Now they mean't the difference between happiness and a job well done, and the emptiness of a victory when nobody cares.

That day was one of the unhappiest of Danny's life. Murphy, comes off—I may get both—if I don't get a bullet first."

There was something different in Danny's voice as he said this and his companion stifled the questions that were on the tip of his tongue.

As it turned out, Jack Murphy was never to know.

Larson's yard was in an uproar when they arrived. All six trucks were to be used and two of them had already left. Danny was instructed to pull the wrappin's, etc.,

from the inside of his van and get out with it as soon as possible. A warehouse on Thirty-second street

being their destination.

Long before they reached the warehouse Danny was confident that he was on the right track.

There had been plenty of noise back in the yard, but as the vans pulled out the driver always maintained a look of stony silence. This was no mere moving of bootleg liquor.

The money involved proved to Danny this was no small job and several of the men driving the trucks had an intuition that they might be in a tight corner before they spent the money that was apparently to be earned so lightly.

At the warehouse Danny had to wait with his truck while the first two arrivals were loaded. Then he was ordered to pull in under the chute and, contrary to the usual methods in such cases, he was not required to help load.

The men up in the loft knew their business, and Danny stood by his tailgate watching the bales of silk come flashing down the chute to be caught by capable hands and piled in the front of his truck. Suddenly someone called from the loft above and one of the men in the truck leaped up the wooden tunnel to catch the words. Turning to Danny, he ordered:

"Say, buddy, run outside and say

we'll only need one more truck.

We got more on yours than we thought we could."

With his heart in his mouth,

Danny turned to obey. This at-

Sunday School 'Lesson'

(By Rev. L. R. FLETCHER, D.D., Dean
Mendenhall Institute of Theology, 2401 N. Western Avenue, Chicago, Ill.)

Lesson for May 13

JESUS ENTERS JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Mark 11:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed they who come in the name of the Lord, and having salvation.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Hailing Jesus as King.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Hailing Jesus as King.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Kingly Qualities of Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Assists Messianic Authority.

1. Jesus Officially Presented to the Jewish Nation as King—(vv. 1-11).

This should not be designated the triumphal entry, for it was so only in outward appearance. The shouts were empty and meaningless. It was the promised King publicly offering Himself to the nation.

2. The preparation (vv. 1-6).

(1) Two disciples sent for the ass (vv. 1-2).

He told them just where to go to find it and how to answer the owner's inquiry. The providing of this animal was the working out of the divine plan according to Christ's foreknowledge.

(2) Obedience of the disciples (vv. 4-6). Without asking why, they go at His bidding. The command may have seemed strange and unreasonable, but they rendered explicit obedience.

3. The entry into Jerusalem (vv. 7-11).

(1) The disciples put their garments upon the ass and set the Lord upon it (v. 7). This act showed their recognition of Him as their King (II Kings 9:13).

(2) The multitude (vv. 8, 9). Some spread their garments in the way; others who had no garments to spare cut down branches and strewed them in the way, which was just as acceptable unto Him. This entry was in fulfillment of a prophecy uttered some five hundred years before (Zech. 9:9). They uttered the very cry which the prophet foretold. This is a clue to enable one to understand the prophecies which are unfulfilled as yet. If the prediction of His first coming was thus literally fulfilled, we must believe that those of His second coming will likewise be literally fulfilled. The prediction of Zechariah 14:3-4 will be just as literally fulfilled as that of Zechariah 9:9.

(3) The Lord's action (v. 10).

Upon entering the temple, He looked around upon all things; but as it was evening He withdrew to Bethany with the twelve.

II. Jesus Exercising His Royal Authority (vv. 12-19).

1. The barren fig tree cursed (vv. 12-14).

The fig tree is typical of the Jewish nation. The fruit normally appears on the fig tree ahead of the leaves. The presence of the leaves is the assurance of fruit. This was an acted parable of the Lord's judgment on Israel for pretension of being the chosen people without the fruits thereof.

2. The temple cleansed (vv. 15-19). For two various sacrifices in the temple, many oxen, sheep and doves were needed. Many persons came from the distant parts of the land; therefore it was impracticable for them to bring their sacrifices with them, so they brought money and bought the animals needed. This privilege the law had granted to them (Deut. 14:24-26), for the exchange was necessary. When evil men used it as an opportunity for gain it became an offense before God. It defiled His house. Jesus made Himself a scourge of cords and drove out the money changers, overthrowing their tables and pouring out their money. By this act He declared Himself to be the Lord of the temple and one with God. That which God intended to be a "house of prayer for all nations" was made a "den of thieves." This action symbolized the call of the nation to repentance.

III. Jesus' Authority Challenged (vv. 20-26).

They challenged Him to show by what authority He accepted the honors of the Messiah, and who gave Him the authority to cast out the money changers. This seemed to place Jesus in a dilemma. He responded by a question which placed them in a counter dilemma. Since John was His forerunner, the dignity of His commission rested upon that of John. They were powerless to discredit John, because the people accepted him as God's prophet. If they had accepted John's message they would have been prepared to accept His. They weakly confessed that they could not answer the question.

Route to Glory

"He must increase, but I must decrease." This is your route to glory. Unless He increases in your life and you decrease, your life will be contrary to what He wants it to be. In fact, it will be fruitless. In all things He must have the pre-eminence if you would be fruitful for Him.

Worthy Qualities

A man cannot persistently admire worthy qualities and not eventually partake of them.—Brown.

ARCHIE N. BOBBITT

Archie N. Bobbitt, of English, candidate for the Republican nomination for State Auditor of Indiana, is a native of Crawford County and is thirty-two years of age. He is a graduate of the Birdseye High School and later attended the Central Normal College, at Danville, Indiana. He served as principal of the Alton High School one year and as assistant principal of the Marengo High School one and one-half years. While in the latter school he was promoted successively to the positions of principal and superintendent.

In 1918 he was nominated as Republican candidate for Clerk of the Crawford County Court but resigned immediately after the primary to enter the United States navy. He served throughout the war as a member of the Transport U. S. S. El Oriente. In 1920 he was nominated without opposition as Republican candidate for Auditor of Crawford County and was elected to the office in the fall, serving four years. Soon after assuming the duties of County Auditor, Bobbitt was elected Republican County Chairman in 1922, and in January 1923, was elected as Third District Republican Chairman, making him the youngest man ever to have served in this important capacity, which carries membership on the Republican State Committee. He was re-elected District Chairman in 1924 and continued as a member of the State Committee until May, 1926.

Bobbitt was named State Gasoline Tax Collector by L. S. Bowman, State Auditor of Indiana, on January 1, 1925. While serving in this position, Bobbitt took advantage of an opportunity to attend night law school and last year received his degree from the Benjamin Harrison Law School, of Indianapolis. As head of the Gasoline Tax Department, Bobbitt has been in charge of the collection of the largest single item of State revenue. Despite the bulk of money handled by the department Bobbitt heads, the work of collection has been accomplished at less expense than that of any other State revenue collecting agency.

Bobbitt comes of a staunch Reuben family, his father, Irvin Bobbitt, having served once as County Chairman and devoted much of his time to party warfare. Bobbitt was married in August 1921, to Miss Frances Bringle Adams, of Harrison County. He is a member of the Christian church, at English; the Masonic lodge, at Eckerty, his birthplace, of the Scottish Rite and Shrine, at Evansville, and of the American Legion. He also holds membership in the Columbia Club of Indianapolis.

Bobbitt's name will be presented before the Republican State Convention at Indianapolis, May 23 and 24, with the indorsement of his own Congressional District and that of hundreds of friends he has made throughout the State.

We shall know as we are known. Lo, beyond the orient meadows.

Floats the glorious fringe of day. Heart to heart we bide the shadows.

Till the mists have cleared away.
